MOVES TO CHANDLER.

Mrs. Geo. Tockey and children, of the North Line Trading Post, will move into the Entekins house some time this week. Mrs. Tockey wants to get her children in the public school. Mrs. Tockey will put in her spare time in dressmaking. The Entekins have bought the Peabody house and will move there.

CLARENCE LORDEN DISAPPEARS

[Republican A. P. Leased Wire] SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Nov. 16.—Discrepancies in his accounts and the finding of a safety deposit box and a cash drawer were discovered today following the disappearance of Clarence L. Lorden, city passenger agent of the Pacific Navigation company, and George H. Street, a clerk in his office.

Late tonight, neither Lorden nor Street had been found by the police. Accounts had not concluded their examinations of the company's books, but the total amount missing was estimated at $1,000.

From a slip at the safe deposit vaults where the company's money was kept, it was learned by the officials that Lorden had visited the place and had opened the box about 5 P. M. Sunday. He had worked in the office until that time. Street was last seen at the office on Saturday. Lorden drove away from the office Sunday night in his motor car, which is missing from the garage. He recently was separated from his wife.

NO IMMUNITY FOR FLAG

[Republican A. P. Leased Wire] WASHINGTON, Nov. 16.—No belligerent power will be asked by the United States to grant as a favor assurance of immunity from seizure for ships flying the American flag. This was made plain today by State Department officials in response to inquiries as to the department's attitude toward the request of the trans-Atlantic Steamship line that special representations be made to Germany in behalf of the steamer Winnebago, now held up at Buenos Ayres for fear that British cruisers might seize her on the ground of German ownership. Officials said vessels entitled to fly the American flag would be protected in their rights without any advance arrangement or immunity from interference on the high seas.

KITCHENER AT MUDROS.

[Republican A. P. Leased Wire] MILAN, Via London, Nov. 16.—The Corriere Della Sera reports that Earl Kitchener, the British war secretary, has arrived at Mudros, on the island of Lemnos, in the Aegean sea. Lemnos, where Earl Kitchener resides, is a Greek island about 130 miles southeast of Salonika and about forty miles from the Gallipoli peninsula. Recently, British and French transports have been reported in the harbor of Mudros, which probably is being used as a base for the operations in both the Dardanelles and the Balkans.

EMPEROR VISITS FRONT.

BERLIN, Nov. 15. (Via London, Nov. 16)—Emperor William again has paid a visit to his troops in the east. He arrived at Brest-Litovsk Sunday and reviewed the reserves there and then went to the citadel, where almost thirty years ago he was a guest of Emperor Nicholas. After visiting various parts of the citadel city of Brest-Litovsk, most of whose inhabitants have gone back into Russia, Emperor William continued to Pinsk, where he again reviewed his troops and was greeted by the inhabitants of the town.

PEACE TERMS PROPOSED BY TREVELYAN

[Republican A. P. Leased Wire]

LONDON, Nov. 16.—Charles P. Trevelyan, liberal member for Yorks, in a speech in the house of commons today, urged the formulation of terms of peace for the trying to obtain by negotiations instead of by bloodshed the restoration of Belgium and the settlement of European boundaries on lines of nationality.

"Germany," said Mr. Trevelyan, "to preserve her existence can continue the war six years. Meanwhile what is going to happen to us and the rest of the world? A war of attrition means for us, as well as for Germany, utter and irretrievable ruin."

Andrew Bonar-Law, minister for the colonies, condemned Mr. Trevelyan's speech as useless and mischievous.

"There is not another member of the house," said Mr. Law, "who believes for a moment that Germany will free Belgium or restore Alsace to France until she is thoroughly beaten and the British government is as determined now as she was on the first day war was forced on, that the objects sought by it are attained."

T. P. O'Connor, one of the British nationalist leaders, said that the view should not be permitted to go abroad that Mr. Trevelyan represented any secretary, either of parliament or of the country. Until Germany was defeated, he added, it was certain that she never would consent to terms for peace satisfactory to the allies.

John Hodge, laborite member said that during the last six months he had visited France for the purpose of counteracting the evil effects of such "mischievous pacifist views" as Mr. Trevelyan has expressed.

Sir Edward Carson told the house that he left the cabinet when it came to an emphatic decision, on the advice of its military advisers, that it was too late to assist Serbia. He protested, if it were too late to assist Serbia, that that country ought to be told so, so that she could take such steps as would save her from destruction. It was not until General Joffre came to England that the policy announced by Premier Asquith was decided upon.

WIRELESS TO SOUTH AMERICA

[Republican A. P. Leased Wire] NEW YORK, Nov. 16.—Chauncey Eldridge, president of the Federal Holding company of this city, which has for three years operated a wireless telegraph system between San Francisco and Honolulu, announced today that the company had obtained a concession from the Argentine government for the erection of a high powered station at Buenos Ayres. Mr. Eldridge said it was intended to begin building stations with wireless towers 1,000 feet high, near New York and in the vicinity of Buenos Ayres, shortly, and that probably within a year there would be for the first time direct communication by wireless between this country and South America.

JAMES SUTTON DIES

[Republican A. P. Leased Wire] PORTLAND, Ore., Nov. 16.—James W. Sutton, well known in circles of the Pacific coast for 25 years past, and father of Lieutenant R. B. Sutton, of the United States Army Aviation corps, died suddenly today in a taxicab while en route to his home after being stricken at his office. He was born in San Francisco in 1859. Mr. Sutton has held railroad positions of importance here and at Los Angeles. At the time of his death he was assistant freight agent for the Southern Pacific company.

INDIAN MONARCH ABANDONED

[Republican A. P. Leased Wire] LONDON, Nov. 16.—A dispatch to Lloyd's from St. Helena says the captain and 17 members of the crew of the British steamer Indian Monarch, bound from New York for Auckland, N. Z., was abandoned on fire 420 miles south of St. Helena November 9.

The Indian Monarch sailed from New York October 3. She was a vessel of 4,322 tons and was owned by the Monarch Steamship company, of Glasgow.

DECISION FROM RUMANIA.

[Republican A. P. Leased Wire]

PETROGRAD, Nov. 16.—(Via London, Nov. 16.)—From information received today, a speedy decision by Rumania is indicated, but the part she will take in the war is not disclosed. News of the successful withdrawal of the Serbians from dangerous positions has strengthened the confidence of the Russians in the issue of battles in the near future. The entente allies are believed to be rapidly strengthening their forces far beyond earlier estimates. Russian successes at vital points along the 600 mile line are leading the informed public to expect vigorous pressure against the Austro-Germans.

EARTHQUAKE AT ROME

[Republican A. P. Leased Wire]

ROME, Nov. 15, via Paris, Nov. 16.—A strong earthquake shock accompanied by explosions occurred at Avezzano at 2:35 o'clock this afternoon, causing a panic among the population which still is living in wood huts erected after the disaster in January. The people of the town rushed into open air, notwithstanding a torrential rain. No one was injured and the property damage was insignificant.
